Fri-vers' nite: Carrying the whole team on one's own? (PGSSS0022)

Introduction	"A cord of three strands is not quickly broken," said King Solomon, who was full of wisdom. Hence, we would like to present to you the "Fri-vers' nite", a platform for knowledge and experience exchange, to facilitate sharing of your points of view on certain topics with other gifted peers. Not only will you be able to gain insights from other gifted peers, you will also build a social network with a group of like-minded and proactive people. It is often said that some basketball or football superstars can "carry the whole team on their own". But is such a team a healthy one? Every gifted student can be a great leader in the area of his/her own giftedness and talents. But does it mean that gifted students do not need teamwork or collaboration with others? To help gifted students understand the importance of teamwork, we will look at different roles in a team and their respective characteristics through group activities and sharing in the coming "Fri-vers' nite".
