Leaders for the New Generation (LEAS2131)

Comments from Students

"This course has enabled me to learn about the necessary qualities required to be a successful leader. It also gave me hands on experience to discover what factors are the most important when working in a group. I have also learnt to give different members opportunities to shine and raise the morale of the group."

"This course has been an unforgettable experience. Through different workshops and activities, my communication techniques, problem solving skills and confidence have improved greatly. Not only have I learnt about important qualities of a leader, I have also met good friends from different schools. I am sure what I have learnt here can be applied to my leadership position at school."
