

HKAGE Parent Peer Support Group (Primary & Secondary)

June 2019

Introduction

This group aims at creating a learning community amongst parents of gifted children for mutual support. Parents are welcome to share their experiences and obtain feedback from others without being judged or criticized. The group can also help parents develop positive solutions in a respectful environment.

The group meets once a month for 2 hours (except summer holiday). The meeting is semi-structured. In the meeting, there is a presentation/sharing on a specific topic that stimulates parents' subsequent sharing and exchange. The group can also help parents develop positive solutions in a respectful environment.

Objectives

This group aims at creating a learning community amongst parents of gifted children for mutual support.

Upon completion of the group, parents will be able to:

1. Voice their concern(s) in a stress-free environment;
2. Share, learn and network amongst parents to support each other;
3. Reinforce positive values and attitude of nurturing the gifted;
4. Share information, ideas and resources.
