Parent Support Group
Connecting with Child (JOPEP001G)

Introduction

An extension of the "Parenting for a Peaceful World" parent workshop, this group aims at creating a learning and mutually supporting community amongst parents of gifted children and enhancing parents' understanding of the 10 connecting themes. Reflective activities will be used to help parents share their common questions, thoughts, and opinions on the theme "Connecting with Child". Parents are free to share their experiences and obtain feedback from others under a non-judgemental atmosphere. The group also facilitates parents to construct answers and new ideas in their own "language" by developing positive solutions under an interactive atmosphere in a respectful environment.

Objectives

1. To strengthen parents' connection with their inner child
2. To let parents voice out their concern(s) freely
3. To let parents share, learn, and build up supporting network amongst their peers
