Venue : G04 Room 105, The Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education (HKAGE)
Sha Kok Estate, Shatin, New Territories, Hong Kong (Located between Buddhist Kok Kwong Secondary School and Yue Shing Court) and ZOOM

Instructor : ~~To be announced~~ Ms Virginia Chang Wan Yee, Ex-chairman of The Hong Kong Parent Education Association; Parent Education instructor

Content : What is regarded as a suitable school for your children?
What conditions and challenges are parents facing in deciding to switch the children to another school?
How to assist children in coping with their new school environment?

This talk invites an experienced parent who is also a parent education instructor and her son to share their experience and opinions of school switching. They will elaborate on the importance of bringing one's talent into full play as a foundation to choosing the right school and how selecting a suitable mode of study could benefit a child's development as a whole. All parents and teachers are welcome to join the talk.

Objectives : Upon completion of the talk, the participants should be able to:

- become more willing to explore different talents of children/students;
- describe how school's nature and learning experience could bring a strong impact on a child's development;
- review and welcome new criteria for choosing a suitable school;
- identify children/ students' needs as a foundation for choosing a suitable school;
