

Experience Sharing Talk on Studying Abroad by Project Access Hong Kong

(ALE/COL/002)

Introduction	Project Access HK is a non-profit organisation initiated and led by passionate Oxbridge students who are also HKAGE alumni aiming to help aspirational youths apply for top UK universities. Project Access HK realises that in Hong Kong, there is a huge number of talented students who have never considered pursuing their higher education overseas, mainly due to a lack of resources and financial support. The Experience Sharing Talk on Studying Abroad by Project Access Hong Kong will cover application processes to the Universities in the UK and how being an international student overseas is like. Furthermore, the talk will include an introduction of the mentorship programme hosted by Project Access Hong Kong, which selects outstanding members of HKAGE eligible for free UK top universities (including but not limited to Oxbridge) application consultation service.
