“Get-set-goal (GSG)-Blueprint of Our Life” Series :

Care - Emotional Support Offered by the Medical Practitioners (GSGW1001)

Introduction	Form the famous Nightingale to modern day nurses, with the advancement of medical science, social development and the need for public health services, training programmes for nurses were refined. From the clinical training to a specific subject in higher education institutions, nurses are becoming more knowledgeable and professional. However, among the everchanging society, the essential characteristic of a nurse has never shaken - be passionate about life. How should a nurse walk with the patient and their families, and provide both physical and emotional support, to allow them to be more comfortable, and have a better recovery? The secret lies in a pure, genuine heart, for being compassionate. We welcome you to know more about the work and beyond being a nurse.
