Jockey Club Gifted in Bloom--Harmony in Heart & Mind Programme

Frí-vers' Nite (Saturday Edition):

My Life as a Radio Personality (PGSST0013)

Introduction

Many people see radio programme host as an impossible, dramatic job. As a radio host in RTHK for two years, Tom sees this career as a challenging but rewarding and valuable experience. What's behind the scene is that it is also a professional. Nowadays, fewer people listen to radio anymore, on the other hand, substitute with online platforms such as Youtube. In this talk, Tom is going to share some radio broadcasting history in Hong Kong, his job in RTHK and how he manages his time between working in RTHK and studying at the university.

Programme Type / Level

Talk in Personal Growth and Social Development

Instructor

The story of Tom Tse, an undergraduate student majoring in Media and Communication at CityU, provides us with an excellent example of how age does not matter when it comes to doing something great in life. Since a very young age of 15, Tom has been exploring his passion and talent in event management and communications. He began his career in 2014 as the Master of Ceremony for the Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education Events and contributed greatly to the success of the events. Since then, he has continued to polish his communication and event management skills by becoming the Program Host at RTHK and the speaker of TEDxCityUHongKong. With his TEDx talk given about education system in Hong Kong, he has published his first book "20 letters to the Secretary for Education" sustain his passion on improving the education system in Hong Kong. In addition, he has also acclaimed several achievements including the Youth Arch Student Improvement Award, and the Hong Kong Outstanding Students Award from Youth Arch Foundation. His success story has proven that anyone can be extraordinary by pushing themselves out of their comfort zone.
