

Affective Education Workshop – Self Concept (III)

(PGSSW0041)

Introduction

Self concept refers to how you think about, evaluate or perceive yourself, including your attributes and who and what the self is. For instance, your self-expectation of academic achievement is closely associated with your self concept of cognitive abilities. In other words, when you bear the gifted label, you might expect yourself to be a constant achiever who always has outstanding academic performance. Anything that less than A+ is considered a failure and you may even be afraid to make mistakes.

Meanwhile, you may struggle to live up to the expectations of your significant others such as parents and teachers for they might think you are gifted and so are very smart and able to master all things. As a result, you'll find yourself being exhausted and stressed to expect awards and praise in every aspect. Through the last session of the Self Concept workshop series, you can understand how expectations of self and others have impacts on you and hence make adjustment when you are over-expected.

1. Reflect on how they expect their own selves and others when being gifted
2. Identify the impacts of high expectation toward self and others
3. Adjust the over-expectation toward self and others

This programme is Programmes with No Screening here are no screening questions, written test or other screening methods for this type of programmes.

- Student members can select up to 5 programmes from a list of selection. Applicants have to state the priority when submitting the application. (1st priority, 2nd priority, 3rd priority, etc). 1 token is required for each programme (For programme list, please refer to the issue 15 of Gifted Gateway (click here));
- Application can only be submitted once. Once it is submitted, the priority and the programme selection cannot be changed;
- If a student member removes a programme from the application before the application deadline by withdrawal, the choice priority will remain unchanged. (For example: A student has selected three programmes and removed the programme with the 1st priority from the application. The choices of 2nd and 3rd priority will remain unchanged with no promotion in priority.);
- We will select the students based on the student's choice of priorities and a randomly generated selection by the computer system. If there is time clash between the applied programme and other programmes with offer, HKAGE will consider if the application will be accepted;
- Priority will be given to student members who have not completed the applied programmes;
- Student members should avoid applying programmes with time clash;
- The decision of HKAGE on the result of selection should be final.
