Life is Like a Camera – Film Photography

(JC3C-S131)

Introduction	Learning how to take photos seems rather unnecessary nowadays, as it is no longer the 1980s when you needed at least some knowledge on Maths, Physics and Chemistry in order to practice photography. We have been living in a world shaped by photography without noticing, and taking photos is nothing special anymore, really. We are going to take you back in the 1980s, to try taking photos with a film camera and hand-printing them in the darkroom. And from there we will get to understand how photography can change everything, most importantly ourselves.
Programme Type/ Level	Workshop / Intermediate ( Token-required Programme )
Instructor	Mr. Simon Wan Chi-Chung, Documentary Photographic Artist founder of 'The Photocrafters'
