

Inside Out Series: Social Relationship (I): Social Style

(F2IOS007W)

Living in a socialised society, we all need to know how to collaborate and communicate effectively with other people. Do you think you can establish harmonious relationships with others, get along well with them, and handle interpersonal conflicts effectively? What skills are needed for building good interpersonal relationships?

Introduction of the Workshop

In this first workshop of the series, Social Relationship (I): Social Style, you are going to review your social style and learn how to interact with other participants. At the same time, you will be able to understand and reflect on your interpersonal skills and see if there is any room for improvement. Lastly, you can learn and practise effective interaction skills with the instructor and other participants through acquiring the basics of communication and social skills.

Introduction of the Series

Inside Out Series is a workshop series related to affective education, it covers topics like self-concept, self-management and social relationship of gifted students. This series aims at fostering gifted students' whole-person development from the inside out by enabling them to understand themselves, enhance their self-management skills, and eventually build positive social relationships with the outside world. In the Social Relationship workshop series, I, II and III, you will be able to learn on various topics relating to social relations, such as social styles, communication skills, empathy, getting along with your peers, family and teachers, conflict management, etc. If you are interested in understanding social relations, don't miss this opportunity. You are also encouraged to complete the whole series for mastering the social techniques progressively.

This programme is Programmes with No Screening

There are no screening questions, written test nor any other screening methods for this type of programmes.

- Student members can select up to 5 programmes from a list of selection. Applicants have to state the priority when submitting the application. (1st priority, 2nd priority, 3rd priority, etc). 1 token is required for each programme (For programme list, please refer to the issue 20 of Gifted Gateway (click here));
- Application can only be submitted once. Once it is submitted, the priority and the programme selection cannot be changed;
- If a student member withdraws from the application before the application deadline, the choice priority of other programmes will remain unchanged. (For example: A student has selected three programmes and removed the programme with the 1st priority from the application. The choices of 2nd and 3rd priority will remain unchanged with no promotion in priority.);
- We will select the students based on the student's choice of priorities and a randomly generated selection by the computer system. If there is time clash between the applied programme and other programmes with offer, HKAGE will consider again if the application will be accepted;
- Priority will be given to student members who have not completed the programmes applied;
- Student members should avoid applying programmes with time clash;
- The decision of HKAGE on the result of selection should be final.
