

Parent-Child Creativity Workshop

(F1PCG002J2)

Introduction	Parents play a key role in promoting and developing children's creativity. However, it is often noticed that many children tend to be less creative and display less curiosity when they grow up. What has suppressed children's creativity? How can parents help nurture their kids' creativity? Creativity refers to a very complicated sets of mindsets and skills a person has to own to become a successful creator/entrepreneur. Having lots of creative ideas is just the first step in the journey towards creativity. The Parent-Child Creativity Workshop is designed to offer creative activities that both parents and children can enhance and demonstrate their creativity. During this workshop, they also understand the positive influences of parent-child communication and a conducive environment in building up children's creativity. Parents would eventually be more aware of the importance of appreciating their children's creative potential and help develop their confidence in creative exploration.
