

On your marks, get set, go! (E2GSG029W)

Introduction	From the first day you were born, you start learning. You learn every day. Do you still remember how were you being educated when you were small? Why do you need to learn? You learn because you love to or because you are told to? What are you being told? Winning at the starting line? Do you feel comfortable about how you are being educated? Do you think there will be a great change in education in the near future? Do you think there is a need to change in education? In this workshop, the speaker will share his views about education covering different age groups, focusing on secondary school education. Also, the speaker will predict how students learn /teachers “teach” in the near future.
