Jockey Club "Gifted in Bloom-Harmony in Heart & Mind" Programme

Advanced Storytelling-
Present Presentable Presentations Presentably
(J2PGS001W) (J3PGS001W)

Introduction

Presentation is of the paramount importance of conveying messages clearly, such as the former U.S. President Obama, former Apple CEO Steve Jobs, who could not only convey the messages accurately and soundly, but also catch the audiences' minds and attention. This advanced workshop will help students to effectively present and express own story and thoughts by using different activities and approaches to bring up the presentation skills. Storybooks will be provided as a medium to explore and construct their own stories. Let's make some efficient changes for your future since the application. Starting from amending your own presentation ways, you will not only be able to present your ideas soundly, but also draw everyone attention with your ability and newly equipped presentation skills.

The workshop also serves as a platform to train potential students to present their story in the theme, "How A Gifted Mind Starts" of the Student-led Conference, "The Beautiful Hearts & Minds of Gifted Students". (Link)
