

Life Planning Workshop

(P4 – P6 HKAGE Student Members)
(F1LPW001W)

In this workshop, students will be equipped with the essential components and positive life skills that lead to success in their life. They would be coached to develop a positive mindset, learn how to understand and make the best use of their character strengths to achieve their greatest accomplishments.

Introduction to the Workshop

This workshop will also help students to learn social relationship skills, how to handle conflicts with others, how to understand the perspectives of others, and to develop constructive relationships with others. Lastly, students will learn how to set positive goals, and how to make wiser decisions and develop plans for their future.
