Game Design Creation: Decode Your Career Interest
J1COD001W; J1COD002W

Introduction	Join us and build your unique game, share with us your game design ideas and experience the fun of coding with peers. This workshop will teach you how to set up and create mobile games. Except for the basic principles and skills in coding, this workshop will lead students to explore logical thinking skills and develop different levels of mobile games. Besides, this workshop will guide students to explore their characteristics and match their characteristics with different job requirements. Each student will design a career game to encourage players to explore career interest and help their peers match personal characteristics with job requirements.
