

Sportsmanship & Mølky

(F1SPS002W)

Besides Santa Claus, what other interesting things can be found in Finland? Mølky! Mølky, a Finnish throwing game that combines Bowling and Dart in scoring, is a newly emerged sport in Hong Kong. Involving a relatively low intensity of exercise but requiring good eyesight, sound mind and flexible strategies, Mølky should be rather appealing to gifted students who like thinking.

This course covers the basic knowledge of Mølky, the throwing techniques, tactics and on-hand experience of the game. Participants will not only build up their physical fitness (e.g. by training the small muscles and hand-eye coordination) and enjoy the excitement of the game, but also have ample opportunities to discuss and work out various game tactics and strategies with their teammates. This would help improve communication and problem-solving skills and promote team spirit among the participants.

If you want to pick a sport which could provide all-round training for your mental and physical fitness this summer, Mølky should be a good choice for you!
