

Introduction to Communication Science (by Coursera) (E3CAV0010)

Introduction The Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education strives to provide diverse learning opportunities for our student members taking into consideration of your interests, learning preferences and flexibility. In the coming days, we shall gradually introduce more online learning programmes which will supplement our face to face provision and enhance learning flexibility. These online programmes are carefully selected from world class institutions and provide great challenges to our student members. On completion of each programme, you will get a certificate from the institution and full refund from us. Please take note of the procedure of enrolling on these online programmes by referring to the information provided.
