

Clinical Psychologist's Diary (E2GSG038W)

Introduction

In this workshop, the speaker will share with you a typical day of a clinical psychologist, give you an introduction on the different fields of psychology and their career prospects, highlight some important qualities of being a psychologist, and tell you the pathway of becoming a psychologist in Hong Kong.

Dr Richard LAU is a registered clinical psychologist of the Hong Kong Institute of Clinical Psychology which is fully accredited by the Department of Health. He is also an associate fellow and registered clinical psychologist of the Hong Kong Psychological Society, a full member of the Hong Kong Clinical Psychologists Association, an associate fellow of the Hong Kong Professional Counselling Association, a registered clinical supervisor of the Asian Professional Counselling & Psychology Association, a certified clinical hypnotherapist of the Professional Board of Hypnotherapy, Inc., and a full member of the Australian Psychological Society.

For more than ten years, Dr Richard LAU has developed many training programmes for the gifted population and their parents in various private or non-government organisations in Hong Kong. He was a senior lecturer at the Department of Special Education and Counselling, Faculty of Education and Human Development in The Education University of Hong Kong; an assistant professor at the Nethersole School of Nursing, Faculty of Medicine of the Chinese University of Hong Kong; an assistant professor at the Department of Counselling and Psychology, Faculty of Social Sciences of the Hong Kong Shue Yan University; and a visiting professor at the Faculty of Social Sciences and Education of the University of Saint Joseph (current name) over the last twelve years. Through Dr LAU's teaching work in these universities, he has delivered many courses related to teaching or counselling students with special educational needs including gifted students. He has also trained numerous professional teachers, counsellors and social workers in teaching, counselling, and helping gifted students and their parents.
