Intended Learning Outcomes

Upon completion of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. Understand basic chemistry and biology concepts, and acquire basic knowledge on numerous science topics ;
2. Recognise the importance of the nature of science and learn to comprehend knowledge critically; and
3. Communicate efficiently with other participants to complete the group activities.

◆ Introduction

Science, to many, is a body of knowledge. However, that cannot be further from the truth. Science is a way of thinking, a system that we use to organise our curiosities and explorations of the world around us.

In this course, there will be six lessons focused on chemistry and biology, with numerous class discussion activities to strengthen your learning and delve deeper into the intricacies of the world of biological science. This programme will act as a small but significant step for you to appreciate science and foster a passion in science exploration.
