

Everything You Need to Know about a Career in FinTech

(TECT1762)

Introduction

In recent years, people think that 4th industrial revolution has begun. Do you know how is the development of AI and computer automation technologies changing the Finance Industry? What is Fintech?

The talk will also introduce the career prospect of Fintech, and thus spark the students' interest in related careers and follow a learning path in FinTech.

The speaker Ms Vivian LEUNG Wai Man is a seasoned business professional with over two decades of experience (Australia and Hong Kong) in Information Technology and Big4 management consulting. She was the Executive Director for Human Resources for JP Morgan Chase & Co. in Hong Kong and also served at The Hong Kong Jockey Club as an Executive Manager for Human Resources on matters related to Information Technology.

Over her career, she established track record in successful delivery of transformational programs in organisations from FinTech start-ups to established multinational corporations. Recently, she has focused on education and talent development in China, Hong Kong and Australia, especially surrounding disruptive technologies such as Blockchain.
