

香港資優教育學苑
The Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education

-ed/-ing adjectives

-ed/-ing adjectives

We use -ed adjectives to describe how we feel.

Sam is excited.

-ed/-ing adjectives

We use -ed adjectives to describe how we feel.

We use -ing adjectives to describe people or things which give us these feelings.

Sam is excited.

The football match is exciting.

-ed/-ing adjectives

-ed adjectives

amazed
amused
bored
disappointed
excited
interested
moved surprised
touched

-ing adjectives

amazing
amusing
boring
disappointing
exciting
interesting moving surprising
touching

Key structure

I	was	amused	because the story was funny.
---	-----	--------	------------------------------

The film	was	amusing.
----------	-----	----------

Practice

Click the correct answer.

boring

amused

interesting

moved

My grandma likes watching Cantonese operas but I think they are _____ .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

amused

interesting

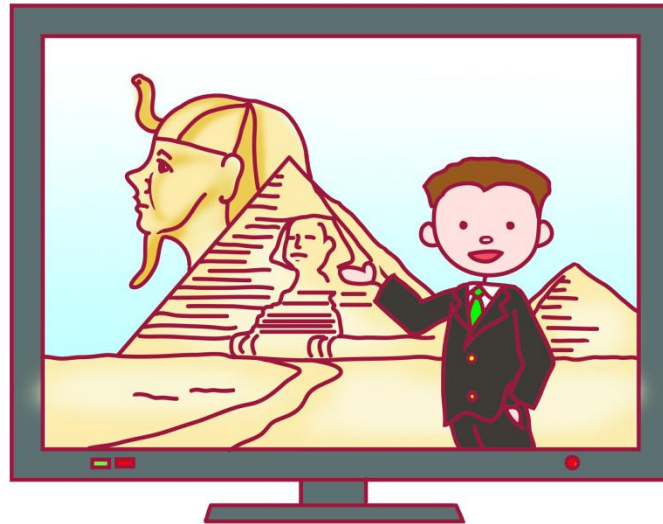

moved

My grandma likes watching Cantonese operas but I think they are boring .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

amazing

exciting

touching

bored

I feel _____ when I watch documentaries.

Practice

Click the correct answer.

amazing

exciting

touching

I feel bored when I watch documentaries.

Practice

Click the correct answer.

moving

exciting

disappointing

surprised

Children like playing hide-and-seek because the game is _____ .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

moving

disappointing

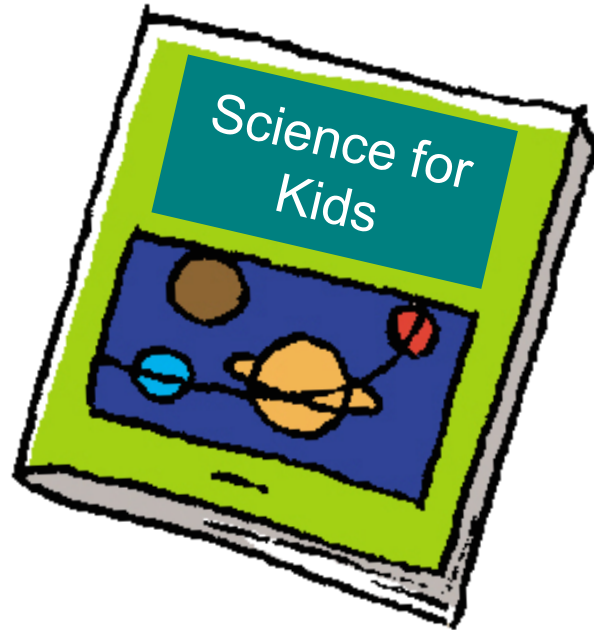

surprised

Children like playing hide-and-seek because the game is exciting .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

touching

amazed

interesting

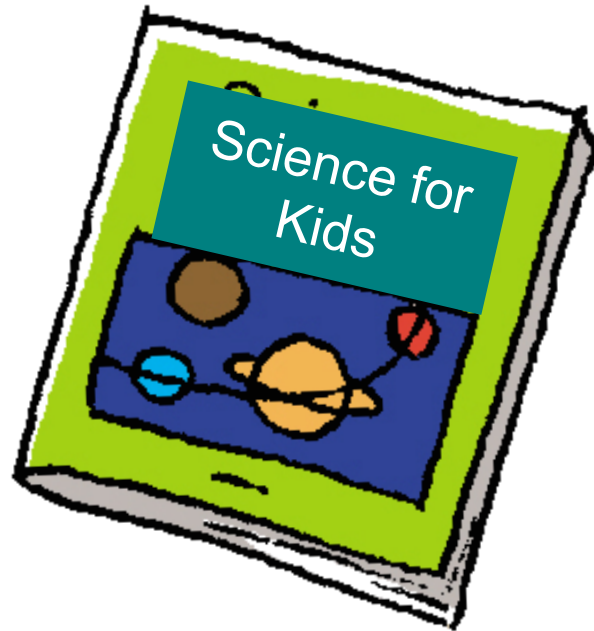

bored

Books about science are my favourite books. They are _____ .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

touching

amazed

bored

Books about science are my favourite books. They are interesting .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

amazing

moving

surprised

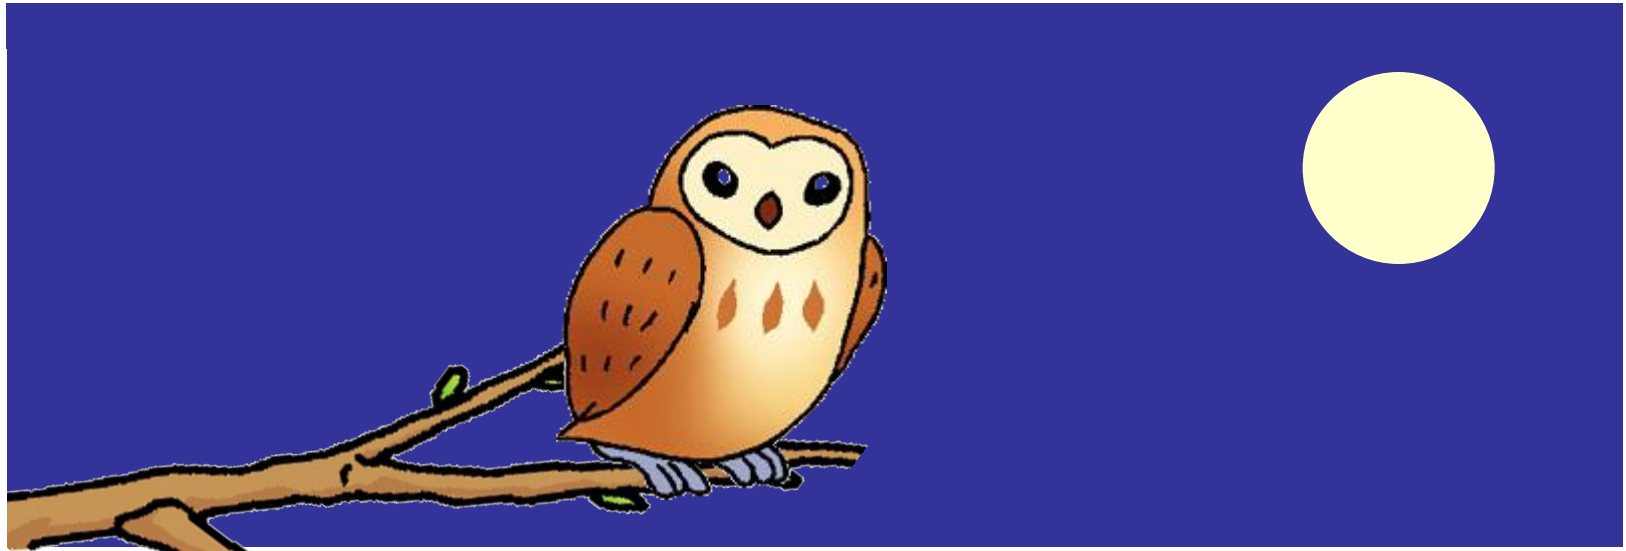

touched

Owls can see things clearly in the dark. I think they are _____.

Practice

Click the correct answer.

moving

surprised

touched

Owls can see things clearly in the dark. I think they are amazing .

Practice

Click the correct answer.

moved

amusing

surprised

disappointed

I can't go on the school picnic today because I am sick. I am _____.

Practice

Click the correct answer.

moved

amusing

surprised

I can't go on the school picnic today because I am sick. I am disappointed.

The End

