Recruitment of “I Think · I Feel · I Learn” student speakers

(A2TFL001H)

Introduction	What knowledge and skills are you passionate to share with your peers? What insights and stories were generated from your learning? I Think · I Feel · I Learn is a platform for HKAGE students to share their learning and associated thoughts and feelings with other students. Through a series of talk, student speakers will present a specific topic of knowledge or skills. They would also talk what inspired them to start learning and exploring the new knowledge or skills. Apart from that, student speakers will describe what learning methods used and their difficult feelings and throughout their learning journey. Facilitation and coaching will be given to student speakers to reflect, discuss and articulate their learning insights, strategies and feelings. The first opportunity for student speakers to deliver their speech will be in July at the student-led conference, “The Beautiful Hearts & Minds of Gifted Students”. The conference is collaborated with the Jockey Club “Gifted in Bloom-Harmony in Heart & Mind” Programme.
