

Overseas Talk Hosted by Project Access Hong Kong

(collaboration with ALED, HKAGE)

(ALE/COL/002)

Introduction	Project Access is a non-profit organisation lead by alumni of HKAGE that helps aspirational youths apply for Oxbridge. Project Access realizes that in Hong Kong, there is a huge number talented students who have never considered pursuing their higher education overseas, mainly due to a lack of resources and financial support. The Overseas Talk hosted by Project Access Hong Kong, supported by HKAGE, will cover various aspects of life as an overseas student in UK, as well as application processes to the University of Oxford and Cambridge. Furthermore, the talk will include an introduction of the mentorship programme hosted by Project Access Hong Kong, which selects outstanding members of HKAGE eligible for free Oxbridge application consultation service.
